

Shannon is a natural leader who truly listens to the concerns of her community members. I have watched her pour her time and talents into school building projects and impossible budget solutions, often having to change course multiple times, but always remaining calm and unwavering at the helm. Shannon has the integrity, intelligence, work ethic, and confidence needed to positively impact our state.

Mariah Peric

Scarborough resident